Brief History of Wanneroo

Wanneroo City Football Club was formed in 1976 as an amateur club and gained semi professional status in 1979. In their first season they finished 1st in the semi professional 3rd Division and gained promotion into the 2nd division. In their first season in the second division they finished 5th and continued that form within the top 5 until 1983 where they finished 2nd and were promoted into the West Australian 1st Division.

There only top league success so far was in 1991 when they were crowned 1st Division Champions.

More recently the club merged with Perth city to form "The City" in 2003 before changing their name back to Wanneroo City in 2004.

Today Wanneroo City Lie in the second tier of West Australian Semi Professional football and finished 4th last season following the appointment of Gerry McEwan as head coach.

With a squad filled with young talent, Wanneroo City are anticipating a leap back to the top flight with the aim to be challenging to be the champions of Western Australia once again.
